Personal/Family

I am a husband and father of four. My wife and I have taught our children the value of civic duty. My oldest daughter is an Emergency Room charge Nurse in a local Hospital. My youngest daughter is a Captain in the United States Army and is a Psych. Nurse stationed in Germany specializing in the mental health of our soldiers. My youngest son is a Police Officer with a local Department. My oldest son currently resides in Ohio caring for older family members and working in their family owned business. I have always been very involved with my children and have proudly coached them in volleyball, football, baseball, softball, and physical training to help them all to have the tools to become healthy and active adults.
